25X1 15. [] BRIEFING Spoke with Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, who asked that we postpone the covert action briefing, scheduled for 8 December, to 12 December at 3:30 p.m.

I also left with Brady our latest draft of the letter transmitting agreements under the Case Act. He said he would review it and try to get back to me the same day, but at least no later than 8 December.

25X1 17. [] BRIEFING Met with Norvill Jones, Chief of Staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and passed to him the answers to the questions raised by Senators Frank Church (D., Idaho) and Clifford P. Case (R., N. J.) at the covert action briefing on 28 November 1977. I passed the information to him orally.
